Rim launches of "South Asia Gas Weekly" report

On Oct 13, Rim Intelligence Co will launch a new weekly report covering the natural gas market in India and South Asia. The new publication contains information on energy markets in South Asia that are not discussed in Rim LNG Daily Report. The new report will focus on natural gas and energy markets for emerging markets in South Asia, markets that have started to draw attention on a global basis. For more information on this new product offering from Rim Intelligence, please contact us or simply send us an e mail.
